CANYON CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS CONSORTIUM SCHOLARSHIP 2013-2014

For more than 60 years, Grand Canyon University has provided students with a values-based curriculum from a Christian worldview.

Students graduating from a Canyon Christian Schools Consortium (CCSC) member high school can receive up to a $5,000 GCU scholarship. Further, this scholarship is awarded each year tuition was paid at a CCSC member high school, which could total $20,000 toward college tuition over the course of four years.

Scholarship Specifications

- Graduating students must complete the GCU admissions application and submit:
  - Official transcripts demonstrating admissibility with a 3.0 or greater unweighted GPA or a minimum 19 ACT composite or 920 SAT (math and verbal only) score.
  - Graduated high school transcripts prior to Aug. 1, 2013.
- CCSC Scholarship recipients must meet certain community involvement requirements while attending Grand Canyon University, including weekly Chapel attendance and participation in biannual University community building activities.
- Scholarship awards of $5,000 (for students living on campus) or $2,500 (for students living off campus) are split equally for fall and spring semesters.
- The scholarship is renewable based on the number of years high school tuition was paid at a CCSC member school.
- GCU scholarships are allowed to be stacked up to the following limits:
  - President's scholars up to $16,500*
  - All other scholars up to $14,000*
  - All scholars living off campus up to $11,500*
- Scholarship recipients must maintain a full-time student status (12 or more credits/semester), remain in good academic standing with a GPA of 2.5 or above and uphold the ethical and moral values by which GCU stands.
